Anti-Ragging Cell

Activity Report 2020-21

As the regular academic activities were short and restricted due to Covid-19 there were virtual awareness programmes conducted. During the orientation and fresher's day programmes instructions are given by the Anti-Ragging committee members to the students. The students were informed regarding the anti-ragging rules sent by the university.

The students were informed that:

- Students who are involved in ragging are liable for legal punishments which are mentioned in anti-ragging acts sent by the university and also the issue can be notified immediately.
- Students were informed about helpline numbers on anti-ragging will be displayed in the campus.
- Read out the anti-ragging acts.
- No cases of ragging or related activities are reported from the Campus during this academic year.

Anti-Ragging Cell

2020- 21

New members were added to the Anti-Ragging Committee and a virtual meeting was conducted on 10th December 2020 as the classes will begin in batches from January 2021 after the COVID restrictions are lifted.

- To reach out to the distressed students through counseling cells.
- Promptly and stringently deal with the incidents of ragging brought to our notice
- To generate an atmosphere of discipline by sending a clear message that no act of ragging shall be tolerated and any act of ragging shall not go unnoticed and unpunished.
- All the members of the committee visited all hostels on the campus and guided students regarding the issue.
- Subject to the last meeting a notice was displayed on the notice board and was circulated to students to fill an online anti-ragging form within the time limit.
